Incident Description:

On the evening of 12th July 2025, around 8:30 PM, a 24-year-old man named Rahul was walking home from work in a residential area. While passing through a relatively deserted street, he was approached by two unidentified individuals on a motorcycle.

The suspects stopped near him and demanded his mobile phone and wallet. When Rahul refused, one of the suspects physically assaulted him by hitting him multiple times and threatening him with a sharp object. Out of fear, Rahul handed over his belongings, including a smartphone and cash worth ¹5,000.

After taking the items, the suspects fled the scene. Rahul sustained minor injuries and later reported the incident to the nearest police station. CCTV footage from nearby buildings partially captured the incident, and an investigation is ongoing.
